

Ed Schreyer challenges federal government on affordable housing

The Right Honourable Ed Schreyer, Habitat for Humanity International Board Member has written an editorial piece on the lack of federal support for affordable housing in this country. The article, supplied to Habitat for Humanity Canada and distributed to all affiliates, will be published in most major local newspapers. If you haven't had a chance to read it, you can by downloading the PDF here.

